HAPPENINGS

- Pro-Start Team: The Salem Hills High Pro-Start students participated in an Iron Chef competition on Wednesday, November 9th. It was a pasta challenge where students made anything ranging from a Cajun chicken pasta to manicotti. Their food blew the judges away and they all received high scores. The winning team was Caleb Ottosen, Destiny Morris and Terese MacCabe. The Pizza Factory even donated some gift certificates to the winning team!
- Especially for Athletes Recognition: As part of the Especially for Athletes program, we recognized the following student athletes who have made a commitment to make a positive difference in the lives of others. Thanks for "keeping your eyes up" and "doing the work!" Congrats to : Cody Young, Moriah Wardle, Jacob Rolfe, Harley DeHart, Garrett Lloyd, McKiley Finch, Sophie Neria, Nate Orton, Matt Moser, Bowen Taylor, Annemarie Darrington, Alec Beardall, Doug Julian, Alivia Simmons, Merrell Morley, Rebecca Knapp, Aubrey Tasker, Mikailia Nelson, Bryson Hoole, McKenzie Janis, Coach Bart Thompson. <http://shhs.nebo.edu/news/especially-athletes>
- Make-a-Wish Week: Thank you to each student, parent and family in our school community that supported Lana Doyle's Make-a-Wish! What an amazing week of events culminating in making a little girl's wish come true.
- Player of the Week: Congratulations to Chris Taylor of the School Band for being our "Player" of the Week. We are so proud of our music students and Chris really stood out at the Band Concert this week. <http://shhs.nebo.edu/news/player-week>
