STUDENT RECOGNITION

I would like to nominate Miguel De Dios Chavelas for Math Student of the Week. Miguel always comes to class smiling and eager to learn. He engages in mathematical tasks and is never hesitant to work with others and explain how he thinks about math topics. He also seeks to understand how others think about math. He adds great value to our math discussions. We are lucky to have him in class!

Miguel De Dios Chavelas

Math Scholar of the Week

Mrs. Berg

I nominate Brevon Neal! Not only is he always on time for my A1 class, he's always early and kindly asks me how my day is going. Spreading civility and goodwill is extremely impactful for most, no doubt. But for me, it has been especially impactful since I have struggled this year with connecting with my students ever since my dad has taken ill and has been in and out of the hospital this fall. It has been an especially stressful school year, and I'm so glad that Brevon has made an extra effort to check in with me. High five for spreading kindness!
